EIGHTH AGE TEACHER

Calvert School, an independent Pre-K through Eighth Grade school, is searching for a full-time Second Grade Teacher (Calvert's Eighth Age Class) for the 2012-13 school year. Calvert School is located in Tuscany-Canterbury, a residential neighborhood in Baltimore City, just north of Johns Hopkins University and south of Loyola University, accessible from Charles Street and I-83.

In addition to managing the daily affairs of a homeroom including parent communications, teaching responsibilities will include Reading, Math, Handwriting, and Social Studies. In addition to teaching, faculty members are also expected to contribute to the Calvert community as coaches, club advisors, and serve on school committees on occasion.

The ideal candidate will have a Bachelor's degree with prior teaching experience. A Master's degree is preferred. Candidates must have excellent writing, interpersonal, and organizational skills. Proficiency in Microsoft Office is required.

Calvert School offers a competitive salary and benefits package including medical, prescription, dental, life, disability, and retirement plans. A State of Maryland and FBI background check will be performed.

Interested candidates should send a resume, including salary history, to:
